

FULTON FARMER KILLED BY FAST TRAIN

MRS. SCHAUDE TO HAVE PRELIMINARY HEARING SATURDAY

WHITEWATER WOMAN TO APPEAR BEFORE WILLIAMS.

MURDER CHARGE

Defense Expected to Fight Admission of Confession Following Arrest.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]

Elkhorn—The same courtroom where, two weeks ago, she gave testimony which resulted in holding Ernest Kufahl, Waterbury former service man, for trial, Mrs. Mervin Schaudé, Whitewater, will have her preliminary hearing here at 9 a. m. Saturday, before Justice Charles Williams, Whitewater, in circuit court room.

The charge against the woman is first degree murder, on conviction of which she would automatically be punished by life imprisonment in the state penitentiary. District Attorney Alfred Godfrey, Elkhorn, is confronted with the problem of presenting sufficient evidence to warrant holding Mrs. Schaudé for trial on the first degree murder charge.

There seems to be some question as to whether the introduction at the hearing of the woman's first confession, which she made on the night of her arrest, in which she took all the blame for the murder of her husband and the attempted poisoning of her four children, is permissible. It is expected the introduction of the confession, as well as the testimony given by Mrs. Schaudé at the hearing of Kufahl, will be questioned by the defense.

Justice Williams sat at the hearing of Kufahl.

COMMITTEE'S GENERAL COUNSEL IN NEW AS-SAULT.

ATTACKS RECORD

Plans to Show Director's "Criminal Conduct" in Line With Life.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS]

Washington—Stirred by Charles R. Forbes' charges against committee counsel, John F. O'Ryan told this committee's committee today that he expected to prove "convincingly the whole truth of Mortimer's charge that Col. Forbes was one of the great conspirators who were tied together by a web of fraud to defraud the government."

"I expect further to show," O'Ryan said, "that this criminal conduct was in consonance with his previous life record."

The statement of General O'Ryan, who is the committee's general counsel, was made immediately on resumption of the hearing and before the cross examination of the former director of the veterans' bureau was resumed.

Mrs. Mortimer Quilley—It developed today that Mrs. Elias H. Mortimer, wife of one of the chief witnesses against Forbes, had been examined by the committee in executive session. The reason for this examination has not been made public and probably will not be for some time. Mrs. Mortimer accompanied her husband and Forbes and his official party on the famous Pacific coast trip in the summer of 1922 and it was understood she was questioned at length with regard to incidents on that trip.

Challenges Counsel

Yesterday, in the cross examination of Col. Forbes, O'Ryan said she made charges that the testimony thus far introduced, which impeaches his character, is not only false, but it is the result of subordination of perjury and the coercion of witnesses.

"It also charged that documents (Continued on Page 5)

The box, addressed to Barnes and marked "personal," was delivered to his home yesterday morning. The bomb exploded, it is believed, when he attempted to open the box on a back porch. He was killed instantly. The son with a broken neck was found buried beneath the wreckage of the house and died enroute to a hospital.

ALLEGED SLAYER MAY FIGHT CHARGE

Monroe Rader Will Be Given Hearing Friday for Shooting Man.

Darlington—Indications are that Monroe Rader, 34, slayer by shooting of Elmer Ellsworth, 60, New Digby, Wis., hotel proprietor may fight the charge of first degree murder. Rader is being held in the county jail. The hearing will be held at 2 p. m. Friday.

Mrs. Rader has retained McGovern brothers, Dodgeville, to defend her husband.

District Attorney J. J. Boyle of Lafayette, Ind., on Thursday, said Rader had told him he had killed Ellsworth. Since he was lodged in jail here last Saturday morning, Rader has taken the attitude of gentlemanly reserve.

The first move after the hearing Friday will be the filing by the district attorney of information in the district court. Rader's trial probably will come up before Judge F. C. Smalley, Lancaster, at the December term.

Berlin—Official quarters here dismiss as wholly unfounded the reports circulated abroad that the German government had decided to repudiate the treaty of Versailles in its entirety.

Abuse of Pardon Power Is Charged

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS]

Oklahoma City, Okla.—The prosecution in the impeachment trial of Governor J. C. Walton today turned their guns on the alleged abuse of pardon and parole authority.

They declared there would be no proof that the governor had received bribes, but they would show he exceeded the legal bounds of his authority in that he granted pardons and paroles before conviction, awarded clemency to the face of protests of many citizens and that his action was designed to permit his friends to obtain large attorney's fees.

Testimony intended to show that Guy Sigler, state representative from Carter county, "guaranteed a pardon within sixty days for a consideration and got it in 20 days," will also be introduced, the prosecution said.

The defense counsel objected strenuously the charge alleging that it did "not constitute a legal ground for impeachment."

CROSSING CRASH KILLS MAN, TEAM

GEORGE VAN ANTWERP IS VICTIM OF ST. PAUL PASSENGER RIG IS SHATTERED

Outfit Is Strawn Far Along Tracks—Body Carried on Engine Tender.

[By Staff Correspondent]

Milton Junction — A fast passenger train on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad enroute to Madison struck and instantly killed George Van Antwerp, 71, Milton farmer, at the Kilder crossing three miles west of Milton Junction at 11 a. m. Thursday. Van Antwerp's team horses, which were hauled on a load of corn stalks from his field, were thrown 10 or 12 feet in the air and landed on the other side of the fence, one of them striking and killing a telephone pole. Both horses were killed.

The body of Van Antwerp loaded down by the corn stalks a mile down the track where the train came to a stop. His skull was fractured, his shoulder and one arm broken and death was instantaneous.

Failed to Hear Train

The Van Antwerp farm is about a quarter of a mile from the crossing and just on the other side is another part of the farm, into which Van Antwerp had gone with his horses and a telephone pole. The gate to the field is but 100 feet from the crossing and, as he was returning home with a loaded wagon, the crash was heard. The man has been deaf for several years according to neighbors and apparently did not hear or see the train.

Leaving Milton Junction at 11:05, the St. Paul passenger train was making fast speed when it struck the wagon, loaded with corn stalks, squarely in the rear. One horse was thrown off to one side, an ditch between the railroad right of way and the road and the other was knocked 50 feet against a telephone pole, which it broke in bits, and was thrown to one side of the road. The body of the wagon, were thrown to one side and corn stalks and leaves were strewn along the side of the railroad tracks.

Says Whaley Not Brown

Antwerp, loaded down by corn stalks, on the tender carried it past the rear of the Van Antwerp farm and a mile from where the collision occurred.

The train stopped, laid Van Antwerp on the ground and continued on its journey to Madison, giving instructions to George Kilder and others who hurried to the scene.

Aside from the driver, the sole witness to the accident was George Kilder, Janeville, owner of the farm at the crossing, who saw the accident from a hill some distance away. Mr. Kilder said the horses were thrown high into the air and said the train was going at a very high rate of speed. He declared the whistle of the engine was not blown.

Tobacco Costing State Twice as Much as Schools

State Superintendent John J. Callahan advised the state board of education following luncheon served by students at the Rock county rural normal school Thursday noon. Mr. Callahan urged interest in and support of the state school system.

"We can't keep ignorance and lack of intelligence forced off in one corner and ignore the state," he said. "The wealth of the whole nation should be taxed for educational purposes and the funds derived distributed so as to give every child equal opportunity. Roads and schools are two of the things we pay for whether we have them or not, and it costs more to build than to pay money for them outright. Wisconsin spends $2 for tobacco in its various forms for every $1 spent on education. We spend four or five times as much for tobacco as we do for schools. Tobacco is a luxury and almost as much for new tires as we spend for all educational purposes."

"If the school system has been one of the things that has placed us where we are as a nation, is it not then one of the things that is going to keep us there?"

COUNTRY TEACHERS Organize Group

Twenty-four rural teachers met at the Rock county state graded school in the first of a series of group gatherings, Wednesday night, organized an association which will meet every two months. At the meeting a fine spirit of co-operation was evident. Refreshments were served.

Other group meetings will be held in various parts of the county, including Janesville, Saturday.

PARLIAMENT HAS EVENTFUL SESSION

Labor Censure Speech and Protection Policy Talk to Close House.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS] London.—This is the last day of life for the present parliament. British parliaments often pass out of existence uneventfully, but this one ends its brief career amid events of far reaching importance.

At least two of the speeches which are to accompany its demise are destined to have a great influence on future domestic happenings. One of these is the labor motion of censure against the government which J. Ramsay MacDonald, opposition leader, is to make; the second is Prime Minister Baldwin's reply in a detailed exposition of the government's new protection policy.

Every one was eager to know whether Mr. MacDonald would declare emphatically for a capital levy, making this the main plank of the labor-socialist platform, for it is widely believed that the fortunes of the laborites will be deeply affected in the coming election by their adherence to or repudiation of such a measure.

Apparently, however, there have been misgivings recently among the labor leaders as to whether a levy on capital would gain or lose votes for the party, and now it is said the plan is about to be dropped.

Better Speech Is Emphasized in Week's Campaign

"Better speech" is the slogan during the "Better Speech" week which is being observed in the city schools this week. The objects of the campaign, as outlined by English teachers are:

To develop responsibility and loyalty for the national language; To hasten the day when all Americans will speak correct English.

To counteract the vulgarizing influence of the bad English of the street.

To create a desire on the part of every individual to speak as well as he is able at all times.

To develop the power of clear, forceful and pleasing English. As a special observance, a playlet in three acts, "The Downfall of Poor Speech," was presented by pupils of Miss Mildred Mandel at the assembly period at the high school Wednesday morning. The following took part: Queen of English Language, Ruth Austin; Beauty, Ruth Viney; Culture, Dorothy Jensen; Rhetoric, Helen Riley; Ladies in Waiting, Jessie Druffel; Lydia Anderson and Edna Olson; Sir Success, Arthur Teal; Sir Clear Thinking, Parker Putnam; General Better Speech, George Higgins; Sir English, Leo Eber; Poor Speech, William Wilbur Sings; Marshall Hyde; Slovenly Thinking, George Schmidly; Carelessness, Thomas Hooper; General Mistake, Malcolm Harland. The play was represented to be in the Realm of Thought.

Essays have been written by English students in a competition being conducted by the "Blue 7," the best four of which will be published, two from the junior and two from the senior high school. A subscription to the paper is to be the prize for the first prize winner in each case.

BISHOPS REAFFIRM FAITH IN CREED

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS] Dallas, Tex.—"Reaffirmation of faith" in the "virgin birth of Christ and the apostles' creed," has been made by the House of Bishops of the Episcopal church in the United States.

The pronouncement made public to the Associated Press, following its unanticipated adoption last night at a special meeting of the House of Bishops, points out a distinction between profession of belief in entire surrender to the triune God and belief in certain facts about the operation of the universe.

The House of Bishops emphatically go on record in a reaffirmation of belief in every assertion of the apostles' creed, making such belief and teaching obligatory upon every "deacon, priest or bishop" of the church.

Reassurances Asked. Laymen throughout the country petitioned the house that men in high places have brought confusion by apparent uncertainties of belief and had asked for reassurances concerning what were declared fundamentals of the Christian faith, the virgin birth, the incarnation and the bodily resurrection of Christ.

The pronouncement was expected by those close to house members here today to terminate the controversial situation in which the Rev. Percy Stekney Grant of New York occupied the central position before the spot light of public and denominational concern.

Signed by Bishops. The declaration is contained in a long statement signed by Bishops Arthur T. Hall of Vermont; Joseph B. Chesire of North Carolina; Thomas J. Gailer of Tennessee, president of the national council of the church; Reginald Weller, Fond du Lac, Wis.; and William T. Manning, New York, a committee of five of the highest bishops of the church in the country, named to voice the attitude of the House of Bishops. The pronouncement was adopted unanimously, amid prolonged applause.

This is going to be a CHEVROLET town. —Advertisement.

SCHOOLS, ROADS CAUSE HIGH TAXES

Rosa Tells Why Costs Have Tripled in Ten Years—Shows Charts.

Taxes like "topsy" have just grown. Fed by extravagant public expenditures, the sensible to build roads and schools, taxes have doubled and tripled in the last 10 years until the public has growing pains when it comes to paying them—but still wishes the roads and schools.

A comprehensive analysis of the tax situation was given by C. D. Rosa, a Rock county man, now with the Wisconsin tax commission during his address at the dinner given Wednesday for the supervisors at the Rock county farm.

Commissioner Rosa was plain in his statements and charts showing that the increase in taxes could be blamed directly on increased appropriations by the city and county legislative bodies and that the state had been more or less modest.

Taxes are Trebled. The percentage of the total tax amounts is figured only 4.5 per cent for the state, 21.2 for the county, 27.3 for the local governments, the cities, and 46.2 for the schools.

However, while the statistics presented cannot be denied as showing how much of the tax money the state spends, Commissioner Rosa and all other tax commission experts, do not put down how much revenue outside of taxes that the state spends. Almost every commissioner, bureau and department—and there are a lot of them—pays some revenue through licenses and fees, and while they are not a tax, the public pays the bill.

The statement given for the total taxes received from every source follows:

1913—$1,511,000.
1914—$1,505,245.
1923—$2,668,388.
1923—$2,668,388.

It may be seen that taxes have increased three times in 10 years.

Local Situation. In Rock county the total tax collected in 1911 amounted to $711,153 and in 1923 $2,668,388. The school taxes have jumped during the same time from $192,661 to $1,197,072. In the city of Janesville the taxes have jumped from $11,214 in 1911 to $209,116 in 1923 and there was a $92,000 increase under the new administration. But look at the schools going from $41,000 in 1911 in Janesville and to $319,339 in 1923.

The charts exhibited by Rosa showed that taxes started the radical climb upward in 1910 and are still going up in the altitudes.

A big portion of the tax money raised in the state's name, is returned to the county and local units as "state aid."

Stop the Spending! "It is a question of stop spending or stop hollering," declared Commissioner Rosa.

sloner Rosa. "This policy of building roads and schools is running the state into public bankruptcy. In some northern counties it would take all the property on both sides of the road, two and three miles back, to pay for the improved road. And yet we want more roads."

Commissioner Rosa said that the administration in going back to check over incomes supposed to have been paid, Commissioner Rosa called attention that such an investigation in making present collections, "I consider it 10 times as important to obtain proper returns than to make money into revenue."

It was stated, in closing, the public was warned to either deny itself roads and excessive appropriations for schools or "expect high taxes."

Announcement

I take great pleasure in announcing to all the people of Janesville and vicinity that Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday of next week will be a continuous round of joy and mirth. Laughter will reign in the town for the entire week.

Barney Bernard and Alexander Carr, internationally known as fun makers, will appear in Samuel Goldwyn's greatest stage hit "Potash and Perlmutter" with a select cast, including Vera Gordon. I presume that there is no person living in any part of the world that is not familiar with "Potash and Perlmutter." It has been translated in every language in the world. From all reports I obtained through the press and theatre managers, "Potash and Perlmutter" is a continuation of laughs, in other words, in every foot of film there is more laughs than in any other picture, in a thousand feet.

In announcing "Potash and Perlmutter" with my signature to assure you that you will enjoy this picture more than any one you have, up to this time. Having been close to the tests of the theatre goers. I find that they prefer more comic presentations than dry dramas, so there is a two, hours continuous laugh.

Be there, enjoy yourself viewing Barney Bernard, Alex Carr and Vera Gordon.

Yours very truly,

James Janias

100 WAYS To Make Money

By BILLY WINNER

If I Were a Factory Superintendent—

THERE would be at least two ways in which I could save by firm some money.

First, I would dispose of all the machinery and equipment which I could no longer use and perhaps lay around and litter up the plant—turn it into cash.

Secondly, I would collect the waste—all the odds and ends—and cash in on it.

I'd sell this material through the Janesville Gazette Classified Section. Selling things is a "clinch" when you advertise in the Janesville Gazette. For the Janesville Gazette is WANT AD HEADQUARTERS.

I'd start cashing in on these ideas right away by calling 2500 now, and asking for an ad-taker.

State School Is Host to Lions

Members of the Lions club became better acquainted with the work being done at the Wisconsin School for the Blind, being entertained there at a chicken dinner and a program at the weekly meeting usually held at the Grand Hotel.

The entire program was given by the school and the directors of the school, J. J. Hooper. The school orchestra, furnished a selection and vocal and instrumental solos, and singing by the chorus made the meeting enjoyable.

Superintendent Hooper made a short talk and conducted the members through the buildings, where the children were at work.

Guests were E. H. Draper, Detroit, and Scott Prime, Chicago.

CHARGES FORBES WAS CONSPIRATOR TO DEFRAUD U. S.

and papers which would have indicated the innocence of Col. Forbes, were withheld by counsel for the committee.

Col. Forbes regarded as irresponsible. I expect, however, to prove much more than irresponsible in his conduct of office and in his lack of care of the details.

Col. Forbes-Smith (counsel for Forbes) is an officer of the court and is responsible and I ask him here and now to put his name and proper action toward any witness or improper action of any other character upon my part or upon the part of Major Arnold, my assistant counsel.

Mr. Forbes-Smith then demanded to know whether those charges were directed against general counsel or against counsel, and Mr. Forbes-Smith replied:

"I am making no charges. The charges are made by Col. Forbes, I repeat. This is not a trial of Forbes or any other person, and that the committee did not desire to lose sight of the main issue, which is the investigation of the Veterans' Bureau. He asked, however, that if the committee's processes have been used for the suppression of the truth, the committee desired to know it."

"Yes, I will come," said Edgar, as he stepped down the stairs. "I am going to ask her whether she realizes what effect this deception played upon the police may have upon all."

"You will not?" For the first and only time in all her intercourse with a dangerous villain, Edgar had been told to add with more conciliatory aspect, "You will not wish to feel as I feel, that the child of your own flesh and blood is in the hands of a man who is as cunning as a fox and as brave as a lion. Now I have confidence in your word and in the disinterestedness of your attention to our uncle. You have expressed a wish that we should be friends. I am ready, Quenton. Your conduct for the last two days has endeared you to me. Will you take my hand?"

The old Edgar now, without any question or exclamation, the insouciant, the appealing, the fascinating youth, that child of happy fortune, I did not trust him, but my heart went out to him in spite of all the past and of a future I took all my courage and faith, and I took his hand.

Haines welcomed us at the front door was a study in character which I left to a later hour to thoroughly enjoy.

The sudden flush which rose to his cheek gave evidence to his surprise. The formal bow and respectful greeting to the command he had given. The one of us appeared alone, there would have been no surprise, only the formal greeting. But to see us together was enough to stir the blood of even one who had been for years under the discipline of Edgar Quenton Bartholomew, the one and only.

Edgar did not notice it but stepped in with an air which left nothing for me to display in the way of self-assertion. I think that that moment as he stood in face of the unveiled beauties of the leaping fountain against his Moorish background he felt himself as much the master of it all as though he already had in his hand the will he was making this final attempt to discover. So rapidly could this man of quick impulses pile glorious hope on hope and inspire into the champion at the last turn of fate.

As I was watching him I heard a little man, "It came from the stairs way. Alarmed, for the voice was strange, we both turned quickly. She was looking at us from one of the arches, her eyes widening with surprise. She, too, had felt the shock of seeing us together.

Above, in strong contrast to her pathetic figure, Lucy Colfax stood waiting, elegant in pose and attitude, but altogether unmoved in face and bearing and, as I thought, quite without feeling, till I saw her and...

"No, I never eat 'em," the guest replied. "In that case," said the waiter, "dinner is over."

A matter-of-fact father of an embryo son handed some of the lady's efforts to a waiting maid. The lady, according to a waiter's opinion, according to a waiter's opinion, "Well, what's the answer?" queried the successful stockman.

"Why is it, sir?" one male guest asked of another who knew the subject of the inquiry, reports Judge.

"Reason, enough, I should say. He was in the park this morning, and saw a woman going into a faint. He nearly caught her in his arms, and was robbed by her, eh? Old stuff, that."

"You're wrong, old man. Not that sort of a case. She proved to be a millionaire's daughter."

"Well, he didn't catch her."

"Well, he didn't catch her."

"Well, he didn't catch her."

"Well, he didn't catch her."

"Well, he didn't catch her."

"Well, he didn't catch her."

"Well, he didn't catch her."

UNIVERSITIES of the Western Intercollegiate conference seem to feel that it is an unfriendly act if anyone calls it to their attention that possibly one of their men may be ineligible," says Maj. John L. Griffith, commissioner of athletics, in a letter to the Gazette. "A great deal of trouble usually follows the sending of any such information," he states, "and it is a sad duty, consequently, we have an understanding that all such matters shall pass through my hands and then I send them to the universities. I have assumed that, not successful where the information came from, thus we try to keep peace in the conference family."

REPORTING to the Gerber case at the University of Wisconsin, in which "Gerber" was disqualified for having taken money for training boys in Y. M. C. A. work, Griffith said that in the Gerber case, nearly three weeks before the Illinois game, someone advised me that Gerber had been employed for a number of years at a salary of $1300 as Y. M. C. A. physical director. It is not my duty to investigate the charge, so I simply pass the information on to the director concerned. In the Gerber case it was passed on to Mr. Tom Jones."

HE CONTINUES: "Mr. Jones, when he found time, went up and looked into the matter at La Crosse and reported back to the Wisconsin eligibility committee and the committee decided that Gerber was ineligible. I was in a delicate position, having at one time been connected with the University of Illinois, but for the sake of trying to keep peace between Illinois and Wisconsin I did announce that my informant was not an Illinois man. This was true. Very often information comes to me from people to whom I do not know anything about the man who sent me this information and did know that he had never been connected with Illinois in any way."

"According to the manner in which the A. A. U. interprets amateurism, it would seem that A. A. U. stands for Ambiguous Ambidextrous Under-stander."

Dartmouth may join Yale, Princeton and Harvard to make "Big Four."

A. A. U. may allow new rule that if an athlete is professional in one sport that will not bar him from other sports in which he has not played as a professional.

Run between Ill. Memorial and My Own at Burlington Saturday day will not be run if track is not firm and fast.

HOT OFF THE GRIDIRON.—(By A. P.)—Old scores, as well as little chances, to be settled on gridirons of Western conference Saturday. Wisconsin has its last year defeat and Northwestern has its last year victory to settle in game with Michigan.

Chicago settles differences with Ohio. Powerful Minnesota team will meet Northwestern Saturday. Northwestern hopes to use Purdue as stepping stone from Big Ten collar. Wisconsin eleven spent week priming pre-season football offense which it hopes will give scoring power Saturday.

Reports from Ann Arbor relate strength in spite of loss of Loretta. Minnesota determined to break string of victories. Iowa has for last years. Both teams on edge as result of hard practice sessions.

At Northwestern, Coach Thibault's decision to let the end of the preliminary training.

Secret practice will be maintained. Save for a few minor cuts, the local team is in fine condition. However, the local team is expected to get a job on the line against Beloit.

Name Officials. Officials for the battle were named Thursday. "Andy" Dyer of Whitewater will referee. Bergman will umpire. Lamoreaux will be the head linesman and Klotz, timer.

Beloit continues to look for a victory, especially aiming to meet Janesville's offensive.

Horicon Marshers to Join Waltons; Big Meet, Nov. 23

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE] Horicon—To further act in plans to make the Horicon marsh a federal game preserve, a meeting will be held in the Van Erum high school here at 7:30 p. m., Friday, Nov. 23. The Horicon Marsh Game Protective association has called the meeting.

It is planned to have a large gathering of marshers, including the Horicon chapter of the Izaak Walton League of America, Communists adjacent to Horicon, including cities and villages, are invited to join.

"We cannot afford to stay out of the Izaak Walton league which is already thoroughly organized in all the states of the union with a membership of nearly 2,000,000," says Mr. Radke.

Will H. Dille, Chicago, president of the Izaak Walton League of America, and Senator Irving Lenroot, will speak.

Landis may clear up Pacific coast baseball war.

Backfield Shift for Badger Team

Madison—Finishing touches to the Wisconsin football team in preparation for Michigan Saturday, will be put on by Coach Jack Ryan on Thursday and Friday afternoon. A long scrimmage session, which the team has been going through each week this week, will be in order.

Reports from Madison, the secret sessions which the Badgers have been conducting off at the halfback position formerly filled by Holmes, who has been on the sidelines.

The Michigan team is expected to arrive here tomorrow. Approximately 25,000 fans are expected to see the game.

Can Blues Break Ten Year Jinx Held by Beloit?

JANESVILLE TOOK VICTORY IN 1912 BUT NO WIN SINCE

Back in 1912 there was a celebration held by the football team of Janesville high school. Then for the 10 years that followed, there has been gloom. It is 1923 to see a change.

It was 11 years ago that the gridiron warriors of the Blue institution had their last victory over the Janesville Blues. Janesville was saved (up) the years of 1916 and 1917, when available records show there was no game played. In 1918, the Blues were near to victory, but the best they could do was a 6-3 tie. In 1912, there seemed another chance, but failure to kick goal gave Beloit a 7 to 0 win.

Saturday, Janesville and Beloit clash in this annual renewal of rivalry.

BELOIT OFFICIAL IS FOUND IN HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING

The assistant coach of Beloit high school's football team and director of athletics in one of that university's colleges, "The story found Tuesday in the corridors on the third floor of Janesville high school.

When apprehended he was unable to give a comprehensive excuse for his presence save to say that he was looking the building over. Students say they believe he was watching the Janesville team working on the campus below in secret practice.

The man was halted into a private office and put under cross-examination by high school officials.

Local authorities hold the opinion that the man was on a self-constituted mission and that those in charge at Beloit high had no knowledge of his visit. A letter was received from the man Tuesday declaring he is a former member of the Janesville team and will come to the Janesville team with his trip.

Both Coach Edward J. Gibson and the Beloit high school authorities say the incident will in no way affect Janesville's team, except to make the boys fight the harder.

varies at the fair grounds here at 2:30 p. m. The question on the lips of every local fan is: "What will Beloit do?"

LOCAL MOTORISTS MAY PAY $50,000

New State Law Raises Auto Fees—Other Important Changes Made.

Janeville will pay between $40,000 and $50,000 in automobile and motor truck license fees in 1924, it is estimated, when the new schedule of rates on all motor vehicles operated in Wisconsin goes into effect. The fees on cars will range from $10 to $25; motor trucks, from $10 to $45; and motor motorcycles, $5 to $8; trailers over 5,000 pounds, one half of truck fee; and buses, $20 to $125. Many other changes in the license law are made.

On the basis of the city assessor's statement for 1923, Janeville had 2,350 cars and trucks this year and the number is expected to increase considerably in 1924. Fifteen motorcycles were reported here this year.

How to Apply.
In instructions broadcast by Secretary of State Fred H. Zimmerman, it is declared that it will be necessary for automobile owners when making application for 1924 auto licenses, to obtain an application blank and give the full description of the vehicle, particularly the gross weight, on which the license fees are based.

If these application blanks are not filled out properly they will be returned to the applicant, delaying the issuing of the license. Blanks may be obtained from the county clerk, automobile dealers or banks.

$1 Each for City Cars.
One new section of the license law is that which states that "the absence of number plates shall be prima facie evidence that the vehicle is not registered."

The section of bus fees applies only to vehicles for hire having a passenger carrying capacity of more than five persons.

Trucks, except those used for strictly agricultural purposes must be licensed at a fee equal to that provided for a truck of the same weight.

Vehicles in the public service of the state, county or city, must be registered under the new law but the fee will be only $1 per machine and the special number plates issued will be good for the life of the vehicle or as long as it is used exclusively in public service.

Reduction for Half-Year.
Reductions are provided for where applications are made for licenses after June 30. From July 1 to Aug. 31 the deduction will be 25 percent and after that, 50 per cent, effective next year and not this year.

Records of licenses, including the weight used to determine the fee, must be sent by the secretary of state regularly to each county clerk, sheriff, and chief of police and to every village clerk applying.

The letters A, B, C, and so forth will be used to distinguish the weights of cars on the license tag and with each set of plates will be furnished a highway map of Wisconsin. Plates will be mailed directly from the state prison at Waupun.

Can Transfer Licenses.
Another change which will be welcomed by many motorists is that section which will allow the transfer of a license to the new owner when a car is sold, if the seller desires. This is allowed provided the transfer is recorded with the secretary of state and a fee of $1 paid.

Any vehicle registered in any state or foreign country and carrying number plates indicating such registration may be operated over the highways of Wisconsin during the year of such registration with registration in this state. But no foreign motor truck or bus carrying goods or passengers for hire may operate for longer than 10 days unless registered in Wisconsin.

MELLON PROPOSAL

AFFECTS 7,500,000

Washington—Seven and a half million persons and corporations are affected by the tax revision proposed by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon. This is an increase of about one million over the returns for 1921 which treasury experts now say cannot be taken as a normal year, and that 1922 will show a return to the seven and a half million mark.

Of the seven and a half million, about seven million income tax returns will be affected by the changes proposed for incomes ranging from $1,000 to $25,000. In order to visualize exactly what the saving is to be, this correspondent obtained from the treasury department a table showing what the head of a family with two dependent children would pay in incomes ranging from $1,000 to $25,000, which range affects all but five hundred thousand of the seven million and a half income tax payers.

Here is the table:

Net Income	Single person's tax	Proposed Tax
$1,000	0.00	0.00
2,000	0.00	0.00
3,000	0.00	0.00
4,000	0.00	0.00
5,000	0.00	0.00
6,000	0.00	0.00
7,000	0.00	0.00
8,000	0.00	0.00
9,000	0.00	0.00
10,000	0.00	0.00
11,000	0.00	0.00
12,000	0.00	0.00
13,000	0.00	0.00
14,000	0.00	0.00
15,000	0.00	0.00
16,000	0.00	0.00
17,000	0.00	0.00
18,000	0.00	0.00
19,000	0.00	0.00
20,000	0.00	0.00
21,000	0.00	0.00
22,000	0.00	0.00
23,000	0.00	0.00
24,000	0.00	0.00
25,000	0.00	0.00

Relatively few people in the United States pay taxes on incomes higher than the foregoing tables. There are only 380 persons paying taxes on incomes above $300,000 a year and only 150 on incomes above $500,000. The persons with an income of a million dollars a year or more are only 30 in number, and this represents a decrease, in 1921 over previous years, due to it is believed to be the fact that the wealthier people are able legally to evade taxes on large part of their incomes by buying tax-exempt securities issued by states and municipalities and by the federal government itself for the farm land bank system.

High Income Surtaxes

Already the attack has begun on the idea of reducing the surtaxes for persons of high income, but the treasury view is that the government

Assessment Pay

Time Extended

All extension of time for the payment of special assessments without interest was announced by City Clerk-Treasurer E. J. Sartell on Thursday, which had been set as the last day. Property owners affected now have until 5 p. m. Saturday to pay as it has been decided to allow an additional two days without penalty.

Since Nov. 1, Mr. Sartell estimates he has collected some $16,000 in special assessments for sewer, water, mains, oiling, weed cutting, sprinkling and delinquent water bills. Many more such bills are still unpaid and will go into the tax roll for collection in January if not paid this week. In that event, six percent interest will be charged.

All water main assessments are now due and sewer assessments for Hydeville, North and Cherry streets have just become due. The special assessments for the Eastern avenue outlet sewer are payable at the Rock County National bank, while all other certificates are payable at the city hall.
